

Services Offered by Ishtar Transition Housing Society

For information on our services please call:
604-534-1011

Stopping the Violence against Women is a counselling program that offers individual and group services to women who have been victims of family violence, childhood sexual abuse and/or sexual assault.

Ext. 225

Community-Based Victim Services provide women, men and children assistance with Crown and police, information about the justice system, safety planning, witness orientation and referrals.

Ext. 228 or 245

PEACE Program for

Children and Youth Experiencing Violence

provides education, information and supportive counselling individually or within a group to children 3 - 18 years and their non-offending parent.

Ext. 234

Community Outreach Services offer emotional and practical support, information and referrals according to needs.

Ext. 230

Ishtar Transition Housing Society

Main Office

#101—6350 203rd Street
Langley, B.C. V2Y 1L9
Tel: 604-534-1011
Fax: 604-534-1929

Monday to Friday 9:00am– 4:00pm

Stopping the Violence Against Women

Counselling

Langley : 604-534-1011
Ext. 225

Children and Youth Experiencing Violence

Langley : 604-534-1011,
Ext. 234

Community-Based Victim Services

Langley: 604-534-1011,
Ext. 228 or 245

Community Outreach Services

Langley: 604-534-1011
Ext. 230

Ishtar Transition House

Langley: 604-530-9442 (24hrs/7days)

Libra Transition House

Aldergrove: 604-857-5797 (24hrs/7days)

Community Based Victim Services

Our Mission:

Feminist leaders and allies advocating change through service to women and children who have experienced violence and abuse by providing safe space. We engage, empower and educate individuals

www.ishtarsociety.org

Can we help?

In order to access our services, you may or may not have reported this offence to the police

Our staff offer support and assistance to male, female and children of victims/survivors of:

- ◆ relationship violence
- ◆ child sexual abuse
- ◆ adult survivors of sexual abuse
- ◆ sexual assault (rape)
- ◆ elder abuse
- ◆ criminal harassment (stalking)

We are also able to assist non-offending family members and related witnesses in criminal court cases.

It is our belief that through respect, empowerment and knowledge, victims and survivors of crime can reach their optimum level.

We accept self referrals:

- ◆ you may call us during office hours to speak directly to a Victim Services worker
- ◆ or leave a message during off hours

What services can we provide to you?

Emotional support

Emotional abuse, relationship violence and sexual assault are characterized by unique dynamics of power and control.

The legal system may leave you feeling overwhelmed. Understanding your role in the process can be empowering.

We will assist you in identifying your strengths in coping with challenges, as well as support you in making your own decisions. We take a non judgmental and empathic approach with all survivors of crime. We will also help to develop a plan suited to your unique needs.

Information

We can help you gain a better understanding of the criminal justice system as it relates to your situation by providing information about:

- ◆ dynamics of abuse
- ◆ explanation of arrest and charges
- ◆ your rights and rights of the accused
- ◆ Victims of Crime Act
- ◆ roles of justice system representatives
- ◆ levels of court and court procedures
- ◆ updates on your police or court files
- ◆ protective orders
- ◆ probation and parole

Practical assistance

In order to ensure you feel supported and aware of your options, we are able to assist you with the following practical tools:

- ◆ developing a safety plan
- ◆ accompaniment to report crime to police
- ◆ accompaniment to meetings with Crown Counsel
- ◆ explanation of Victim Impact Statement
- ◆ assistance with Crime Victim Assistance application
- ◆ orientation and tour of court house
- ◆ accompaniment to court
- ◆ assistance in securing a translator
- ◆ referrals to community programs

Related services are available within our agency:

- ◆ Stopping the Violence Against Women Counselling Program
- ◆ Children Who Witness Abuse Program
- ◆ Ongoing informational groups
- ◆ Two Transition Houses in the community
- ◆ Community Outreach Services

Staff are familiar with agencies both within and outside the community and can offer referrals according to your needs.